

Year 2 Autumn 2 Homework grid.

Date: Subject: Mathematics Task: Which is the odd one out? 	Date: Subject: Mathematics Task: True or False: Two more than five is the same as two less than eight. Explain your answer. You can choose your method to show me.	Date: Subject: Mathematics. Task: How many ways could this be correct? 	Date: Subject: Mathematics Task: Find all the pairs to 80 10,20,30,40,50,60,70	Date: Subject: Mathematics Task: Write four number facts the bar model represents: 	Date: Subject: Mathematics Task: How many different objects can you see around you with one line of symmetry – draw them. I wonder can you find something with two lines of symmetry?
Date: Subject: Literacy Task: Choose a well know fairy tale and innovate it so you are the main character.	Date: Subject: Literacy Task: Choose a fairy tale character and write all you know about them – use simple and compound sentences include joining words and, but, or and so in your sentences.	Date: Subject: Literacy Task: Explore grammatical parts of speech – noun, adjective and verb by creating your own star of the show: http://www.sheppardsoftware.com/grammar/grammar_tutorial.htm	Date: Subject: Literacy Task: Write a christmas wish list. Makes sure your list includes commas to separate the items.	Date: Subject: Literacy Task: Write sentences which apply the suffix -ly to turn adjectives into adverbs. You could include words like: Careful, joyful, slow, quick, gentle.	Date: Subject: Literacy Task: Choose a simple poem you would like to share with the class. Learn it to perform. Let a teacher know when you are ready to take to the stage! (if you need help choosing one let us know.)
Date: Subject: Religion Task: Imagine you are one of the shepherds who visited the stable when Jesus was born. Write a letter to your family to tell them all that you saw. Remember how to lay out a letter.	Date: Subject: D/T Task: Draw a map of the journey a letter/parcel would take from your house to school if you were to post it with Royal Mail. Label the different places your letter would end up.	Date: Subject: Geography Task: Choose one of the extreme weathers we have been learning about and write a set of safety instructions for people who might experience it.	Date: Subject: Geography Task: Design a storm chaser car. Think about what protection your car will need and hat scientific equipment you might want to have. Make sure you label your car to explain your design.	Date: Subject: History Task: Use the fire of London game at: http://fireoflondon.org.uk/game and follow the character of Tom Porter. Can you write a diary entry for Tom Porter, describing what happened to him between 2nd-6th September 1966?	Date: Subject: History Task: Design a tankard. After receiving his reward from the King, Sir Edmund Godfrey gave out tankards to remember the Great Fire of London. What images could you put onto the design? Think of the main landmarks of London that we have looked at.