7 MARCH 2019

To celebrate World Book day on Thursday March 7th we will be holding our annual 'Book in a Box' competition. Last year this was a huge success and the creative ideas were amazing.

All entries are to be in by

Thursday 7th March

Judging will take place on Friday 8th March.

(Parents are invited to take part in judging from 8.45am on Friday 8th March)

On World Book Day, children are also invited to come into school dressed up as one of their favourite characters from a book.

Each class will be taking part in different activities to celebrate this day and your child will also receive a voucher for a free book.
